

ADMINISTRATOR CERTIFICATION

Conga's Training and Certification Program

getconga.com

Our curriculum prepares you to become a certified Conga administrator ensuring optimal implementation and support of Conga solutions for your company.

Certifications can be done on your own time — without the expense of travel or time out of the office.

Conga Product Certification Exams

Our product certification curriculum consists of an on-line self study guide and exam to test your competency to create and administer Conga solutions.

Successful candidates for certification typically have several months experience working with Conga products. For our Salesforce applications, candidates should be Certified Salesforce Administrators and all candidates should have completed the on-line self study guide in Conga University.

Being Conga certified allows you to:

- Grow your CRM/CLM administrator skills
- Achieve an elite set of technical skills to differentiate yourself
- Enhance your recognition and career development
- Get certified on top recognized business applications
